From the Editors Desk - Joop de Wit

t wasn't so long ago that someone asked me again "is it true, will Concordia, our Dutch Society only exist for another few years.???" I gave the person a big smile and said; "no ... much longer than that!" You see, during the last 60 years we celebrated many happy occasions and also had to farewell many beautiful members of our Dutch community. They were our foundation stone. Despite the many losses, membership has continued to increase and now we can boast that our Concordia is the only Dutch club in Australia with a growing membership. WHY? Is it the functions? Is it the newsletter? No it's our background and our heritage. We feel comfortable in getting together a few times a year to enjoy some great shows on offer in the Cardiff RSL. The by now very much appreciated Concordia newsletter is sent to over 200 email addresses in and outside of Australia, 180 hard copies are printed every 2 months for our local members to read. It's the choice we offer our members.

In appreciation of what we do for our members, everyone is renewing their memberships each year and also have given us various financial donations, some stuck their hands deep in their pockets, others who could less afford it made a somewhat smaller one. Each gift is gratefully received, carefully noted in the books and put in our treasure-chest. Some donated prizes for the raffle, some gave their time freely as a volunteer when our St. Nicholas and Dutch day is celebrated in Marmong Park, every first Saturday in December. They never asked for out of pocket expenses but willingly give their time to us.

Our valued advertisers have made the printing of our magazine a little less costly. All this my friends are some of the reasons that we can keep going the way we do including keeping our membership fees at a very modest level, we haven't had the need to increase our fees for 17 years in a row, actually we have made the fees cheaper in some cases, even while the cost of printing and mail postage has gone through the roof. We also had a few treasurers in our Society who are real misers and only wrote a cheque when it's absolutely necessary. So my dear friends, you have been given the wrong information about the demise of our Concordia. We will not even think that we are going to finish as a club because we are having too much fun when we are together, especially from our very much praised and appreciated video afternoons. The number of people looking forward to a "gezellige dag" in the Cardiff RSL is not letting up. Having said all that, no-one knows what the future holds but we have plenty of reasons to believe that we will be reaching a few more anniversaries as we continue our current trend and your participation at our special afternoons. A number of interesting indications we have noticed is that a younger and newer generation is becoming interested in their Dutch background and heritage, as well as some Dutch descendants of long ago, they no longer have their children at home, they in time feel the association with our "Dutch Society Concordia". I am sure we anticipate a much longer existence than most are predicting. Just lets hope and pray we can stay alive long enough to experience it all. Looking forward to our next function, Saturday 15th July in the Cardiff RSL, we might even surprise you that day with a comedy act by some of our members, Groetjes Jook

If it doesn't challenge you... it doesn't chance you

CHURCH BLOOPERS - Toni Somerville

The Fasting and Prayer Conference includes meals.

The sermon this morning: 'Jesus walks on water'

The sermon tonight: 'Searching for Jesus.'

Ladies don't forget our rummage sale. It's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.

Don't let worry kill you off....let the church help.

Our guest performer sang: I will not pass this way again, giving obvious pleasure to the congregation.

Next Thursday there will be tryouts for the choir. They need all the help they can get.

At the evening service tonight the topic will be, 'What is Hell?'

Come early and listen to our choir practice.

The church will host an evening of fine dining, super entertainment and gracious hostility.

Please place your donation in the envelope along with the deceased person you want remembered.

Eight new choir robes are currently needed due to the addition of several new members and to the deterioration of some older ones.

Scouts are saving aluminium cans, bottles and other items to be recycled. Proceeds will be used to cripple children.

From the Presidents Desk - Toni Somerville

Dear readers, Our May function was again well attended, members and guests enjoyed the lunch and entertainment. A huge thank you to everyone who donated raffle prizes or money.

Lynda Johnston had been very busy crocheting many beautiful orange butterflies, which were admired by all. They were pinned on the coats and tops of our members and guests. Thank you very much Lynda. The ladies received a small gift which were made by Lucia. Thank you Lucia, they were lovely.

We had hoped to have Norm Bakker entertain us at the July function, but he was booked for another engagement. We will have an entertainment surprise (Comedy Show) for you that day as well as Joop's usual enjoyable entertainment.

In September we will celebrate 60 years of Concordia, amazing!! Many members will remember those years where friendships were made, the different functions, carnivals, dances, etc. which were so enjoyable. We are older and sadly many past members have passed away. It is thanks to your continued attendance and appreciation that Concordia continues. Of course it is also thanks to the committees, past and present. We hope to bring you many more enjoyable functions in years to come.

At the September function we have, apart from the usual raffle prizes, 2 High Tea tickets at 'Iona on Robert.' Iona is a beautiful heritage home located in the heart of Wallsend in Roberts street, where you will get to indulge yourself in a relaxed atmosphere and be entertained by Wayne Rogers. An experience like no other. Newcastle's hidden gem with 5 star reviews. Each voucher is for 2 people. The lucky winners can book a suitable day themselves.

The annual membership fees are due in July and you may like to pay them at the July function if it is convenient. More about it in this issue.

We look forward to your company on the 15th of July for another 'gezellige' function day. Until next time, keep well, stay safe and please book early for our function on Saturday the 15th of July. Another great event not to be missed.

Laughing all the way from State to State...

senior citizen drove his brand new Holden Caprice out of the dealership in NSW. Taking off down the road, he pushed it to 120kph, enjoying the power of the car. "Amazing," he thought as he flew down the M1, pushing the pedal even more. Looking in his rear view mirror, he saw a highway patrol car, blue lights flashing and siren blaring. He floored it to 140kph, then 180kph, then suddenly he thought, "What am I doing? I'm too old for this!" He pulled over to await the copper's arrival. Pulling in behind him, the copper got out of his vehicle and walked up to the car. He looked at his watch, then said, "Sir, my shift ends in 30 minutes. Today is Friday. If you can give me a new reason for speeding, a reason I've never before heard before, I'll let you go.." The old gentleman paused, then said, "Thirty five years ago, my wife ran off with a policeman, I thought you were bringing her back." "Have a good day, Sir," replied the copper and let the senior citizen off the hook.

QUEENSLAND

The owner of a golf course on the Gold Coast was confused about paying an invoice, so he decided to ask his secretary for some mathematical help. He called her into his office and said, "You graduated from the University of Queensland and I need some help. If I were to give you $20,000 minus 14%, how much would you take off?" The secretary thought a moment, and then replied, "Everything but my earrings."

TASMANIA

A senior citizen in Tasmania was overheard saying, "When the end of the world comes, I hope to be here." When asked why, he replied, "I'd rather be in Tasmania 'cause everything happens in Tasmania 20 years later than in the rest of the world."

SOUTH AUSTRALIA

The young man from SA came running into the store and said to his mate, "Johnno, some-body just stole your ute from the parking lot!" Johnno replied, "Did ya see who it was?" The young man answered, "I couldn't tell, but I got the licence plate number."

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

A WA highway patrol pulled over a car on the main road. The copper asked, "Got any ID?" The driver replied, "about what?"

VICTORIA

The copper pulled up next to the bloke unloading garbage out of his ute into the ditch. The copper asked, "Why are you dumping garbage in the ditch? Don't you see that sign right over your head." "Yep," he replied. "That's why I'm dumpin' it here, 'cause it says: 'Fine for dumping garbage."

Don't cry over the past, it's gone.

Don't stress about the future, it hasn't arrived.

Live in the present and make it beautiful.

Stederland is inmiddels midden in de zomer terecht gekomen. Het is warm in ons land en de temperaturen lopen nu al vaak op tot boven de dertig graden Celsius. Te warm voor ons, koele polder kikkers!

Vanaf 15 juni 2017 kan men voor het eerst in de geschiedenis van de Europese Unie bellen alsof men in in zijn eigen land belt. Onverwachte superhoge mobile telefoonrekeningen bij thuiskomst voor het mobiel bellen na de vakantie is nu dus niet meer mogelijk. Eindelijk!

Voor de meesten van U is Paleis Soestdijk zeer bekend, omdat daar in het verleden door Koningin Juliana de defilés op Koninginnedag werden gehouden en waar velen nog dierbare herinneringen aan hebben. Na het overlijden van Prins Bernhard stond het Paleis jarenlang leeg en men vreesde een verval van dit prachtige gebouw en de tuinen er van, die nu in Staatshanden zijn. De plannen voor Paleis Soestdijk zijn nu dus bekend gemaakt. Na een grondige verbouwing zal het Paleis voor een deel hotel worden en deels voor diverse evenementen worden gebruikt. Aan het Paleis zelf en haar tuinarchitectuur zal niets worden veranderd, dit tot opluchting van velen.

Op maandag 12 juni 2017 was overal in Nederland de Nieuwe Haring voor het eerst dit jaar weer te koop en op zaterdag 17 juni was er ook weer de bekende 'Vlaggetjesdag in Scheveningen.' Tegenwoordig staan die data al lang van te voren vast. Vroeger werd de jaarlijkse Vlaggetjesdag in meerdere steden in ons land gehouden, maar alleen Scheveningen is met die traditionele Vlaggetjesdag doorgegaan. Het werd er een druk en gezellig feest! De 70e editie van Vlaggetjesdag in Scheveningen werd dit jaar door zo'n 250.000 mensen in de haven van Scheveningen gevierd. Vele namen daarbij in een haringstalletje een hap in de verse Nieuwe Haring en dan....smullen maar.... Heerlijk toch. Dat was dus enorm genieten door de vele liefhebbers van de nieuwe haring. Maar er was in Scheveningen nog veel meer om van te genieten, zoals de muziek van de altijd weer mooie nostalgische visserskoren in Scheveningen. Dit jaar werd dus al weer voor de 70e keer Vlaggetjesdag gehouden en sinds een aantal jaren dus alleen nog maar in Scheveningen. Het begon allemaal in 1947 toen de eerste haringen aan land werden gebracht na een spannende race met concurrenten uit Vlaardingen en Urk om als eersten de nieuwe haring aan land te brengen. Die race om de eerste Nieuwe Haring is voorbij, want er zijn geen haringvissers meer uit Vlaardingen en Urk en nog maar een enkele visser uit Scheveningen. Het mocht niet meer van de Europese Unie, maar er is nog wel veel haring bijgekomen vanuit Noorwegen. Ze waren dit jaar ook weer heerlijk om ze te eten.

An eye for an eye makes the whole world blind couple in their nineties are both having some short term memory loss. While in for a check-up, the doctor says that physically they're okay, but since they're having trouble remembering things, they might want to start writing things down. Later that evening they're both in the living room watching TV, when the husband gets up. "Would you like anything from the kitchen?" he asks. "Some vanilla ice cream," his wife replies. "Okay." "Shouldn't you write it down so you don't forget it?" she asks. "Don't worry, I won't forget." "Well," she says. "A few raspberries on top would be great. You want to write that down?" "I've got it, honey. A bowl of vanilla icecream with raspberries on top." "And chocolate sauce, too. Maybe you'll forget that. Want me to write it down for you?" A little miffed, he replies, "I've got it! Ice cream, raspberries and chocolate sauce. I don't need it written down, for goodness sake!" and waddles out to the kitchen. 20 minutes later, he comes back with a plate of ham and scrambled eggs, and gives it to his wife. She stares at the plate a few seconds, then says, "You forgot my toast."

Ontroerd?

p een avond ziet een vrouw haar man staan bij het kinderbedje van hun pas geboren kindje. Zwijgend slaat zij hem gade, zoals hij daar naar het slapende kindje staat te kijken. Ze leest van zijn gezicht een mengeling van emoties, ongeloof, twijfel, verrukking, verbijstering en betovering. Geroerd door deze ongebruikelijke houding en de diepe emoties die dit teweeg brengt, slaat ze met tranen in de ogen haar armen om haar man. "Waar denk je aan, schatje?" fluistert ze in zijn oor. "Het is gewoon ongelooflijk," stamelt hij....

An amazing funny experience...

group of tough Harley Davidson riders were riding North on the Pacific Highway when they saw a girl about to jump off Mooney bridge. So they stopped. George, their leader, a big burly man, got off his bike and walked through a group of onlookers including the local police who were trying to talk her down off the railing and said, "Hey Baby.....whatcha doin' up there on that railin'?" Tearfully, she said, "I'm going to commit suicide!!" While he didn't want to appear 'sensitive', George also didn't want to miss a 'be-a-legend' opportunity so he asked, "Well, before you jump Honey-Babe, why don't you give old George here your best last kiss?" So with no hesitation at all, she leaned back over the railing and did just that.....and it was a long, deep, lingering kiss followed immediately by another even better one. After they breathlessly finished, George got a big thumbs-up approval from his biker-buddies, including all onlookers and the police. George then said, "Wow.....That was the best kiss I have ever had. Honey! That's a real talent you're wasting, you could be famous if you rode with me on my bike. Why in the world would you commit suicide?" "My parents don't like me dressing up like a girl." It's still unclear whether she then jumped, or was pushed.

Sometimes those who don't socialize much aren't actually anti social.

They just have no tolerance for drama, stupidity and fake people!

Dalai Llama, when asked what surprised him most about humanity, he said; "Man, because he sacrifices his health in order to make money. Then he sacrifices money to recuperate his health. And then he is so anxious about the future that he does not enjoy the present. The result being that he does not live in the present or the future. He lives as if he is never going to die, and then dies having never really lived."

Our main prizes in the raffles at our 60th Anniversary show to be held on 16th September 2017 ur first 2 main prizes in the 6oth anniversary day Concordia purchased 2x2 tickets at 8o Dollars each to witness a very special show in Wallsend. Iona on Robert, owned by Australia's Got Talent finalist Wayner Rogers and his partner, is a beautiful heritage home located in the heart of Wallsend. Wayne has been opening his home for high tea for a very long time and people are loving it. Only very limited numbers can be booked for each show. Concordia has purchased 2 x 2 tickets for you to win.

The afternoon starts on the veranda of the home with some light refreshments. The house is opened up for people to explore at their own leisure with Wayne's costume room being a real highlight.

Guests are then invited to sit for an intimate concert, which is held in the house's showroom (a converted garage). The concert is very personal, with Wayne telling his story, starting with how he got into the entertainment industry all the way through to him being on Australia's Got Talent. High Tea is served immediately after the show. The house looks amazing and its 5 Stars all round from those who have attended the show before. Allow 2 1/2 hours.

Reaching a high old age...is not for everyone

local news reporter was asked to interview a 102 year old in one of our local Aged Care Facilities:

Reporter: "Can you give us some health tips for reaching the age of 102?"

Mr. Frankie Drinkwater answered this delicate question with a big smile:
"For better digestion I drink beer. In the case of appetite loss I drink white wine.

For low blood pressure I drink red wine. In the case of high blood pressure I drink scotch. And when I have a cold, I drink Schnapps."

Reporter: "When do you drink water?" Frankie: "I've never been that sick."

STANWELL TOPS - END OF AN ERA, Matthew Wolthers

ast year Maree and I, for the first time, enjoyed 5 days of fun and relaxation with the Dutchies at Stanwell Tops. We experienced many Dutch treats - typical Dutch breakfasts, lunches and dinners as well as morning and afternoon tea's - just fantastic.

Exercise classes, games and bushwalks were organised, special guests Herman played the piano accordion and magician Lindsay Gardiner entertained us.

We attended a rehearsal for a musical spectacular by local music students and the final night we held our own concert with most of us participating.

It was a pleasurable 5 days.

SADLY due to lack of numbers Stanwell Tops week has come to an end. We owe John and Mia Joosten and their volunteers a huge thank you for the many years of dedicated hard work that made this event the success it was for so long. We thank you!

I wonder if...

wonder if our "youngsters" would use the honour to join us (parents) in celebrating the 60th birthday of Concordia. This near 60 year old Dutch club consists of many people who took the trouble and many risks to come to this country Australia. We did it to give our children (a hopefully) better life after the ravages of a war torn and very damaged Europe. Some came with young children or had children born here. For that younger generation to take part in some of our functions/festivities would be an honour and a "Big thank you."

Any Concordia function is a new and unforgettable experience.

Our functions entails a very acceptable meal (as much as your stomach enjoys) While beautiful interesting Dutch sceneries are shown on a large screen. (So thoughtfully prepared by our Secretary Joop de Wit) usually followed by some more entertainment. Perhaps some memories are jolted by "old memento."

So much has happened in 60 years since the club was formed. Concordia has been kept afloat by a dedicated band of many members and committees.

Is it worth a thought? All you younger ones give it a resounding "YES"

It would be lovely! and....it will make us all very happy, Emmy Wolthers

Every gun that is made, every warship launched, every rocket fired, signifies in the final sense a theft from those who hunger and are not fed, those who are cold and are not clothed....War is very futile.

hile waiting for her first appointment in the reception room of a new doctor, a woman noticed the doctor's medical school certificate on the wall which bore his full name. Suddenly, she remembered that a tall, handsome boy with the same name, had been in her high school some 45 years ago.

Upon seeing him, however, she quickly discarded any such thought. This balding, grey-haired man with the deeply lined face was too old to have been her classmate. After her exam, she asked him if he had attended the local high school. "Yes," he replied. "When did you graduate?" she asked? He answered, "In 1965." "Why, you were in my class!" she exclaimed. He looked at her closely and then asked, "What did you teach?"

Be kind to unkind people, they need it the most!

When I was 5 years old my mother told me that happiness was the key to life. When I went to school, they asked me what I wanted to be when I grew up. I wrote down 'Happy!'

They told me I didn't understand the assignment and I told them they didn't understand life.

Hutspot met Klapstuk - Hotchpotch with Brisket

This famous Dutch recipe was first introduced on the 3rd of October, the city of Leiden celebrated their victory in 1574 over the Spanish invaders. It's an annual gathering during which the Leiden citizens celebrate with large amounts of white bread and herring and even larger amounts of something called hutspot, a colourful mashed potato dish. It's no longer just eaten on the 3rd of October, but is an extremely popular evening meal during the cold winter days.

Hutspot is traditionally served with klapstuk, a piece of braised beef, but sometimes will also be eaten with a typical Dutch meatballs. The best carrots to use for this dish are winterpenen, winter carrots are a larger and thicker variety of the orange carrot that is harvested shortly after the first frost. The sugars in the carrot add a hint of sweetness to this dish that will appeal to almost any eater, young or old. The carrot appeared in The Netherlands for the first time in the 17th century, out of Iran, and was cross-pollinated until it had a bright orange colour, to honour the royal family, the Oranges. In Australia one has to just buy the biggest carrots one can get.

Hutspot met klapstuk - the following recipe is for 2 persons

500 gram Brisket or Beef Chuck Rib Roast. 400 ml (13.5 fl oz) water 1/2 beef bouillon cube 1 bay leaf 8 black pepper corns, whole 1 tablespoon flour, dissolved in 1/2 cup water 6 large potatoes, peeled and quartered 8 large carrots, peeled and diced 4 large onions, peeled and sliced Salt and pepper

- Add the water to a Dutch oven or a braising pan, add the bouillon cube and stir until dissolved. Add the beef, the bay leaf and the pepper corns and braise on low heat for approximately 90 minutes or until beef is tender.
- Remove the meat to a serving dish, discard the bay leaf and peppercorns and stir the dissolved flour into the pan juices. Stir scraping the bottom of the pan, loosening any meat particles that may be stuck. Bring the heat slowly up until the gravy starts to thicken. Pour the gravy over the meat and set aside, keeping it warm.
- In the meantime, place the potatoes on the bottom of a pan, and add water so that the potatoes are just covered. Put the carrots on top, and finish with the onions. Add salt. Cover and bring to a boil, then lower the heat and boil for about 20 minutes or until the potatoes are cooked. Pour off the cooking water, but save it. Mash the potatoes, carrots and onions until you achieve a mashed potato consistency. If you need more liquid to make it smoother, add a tablespoon of cooking liquid at a time. Taste, adjust with salt and pepper.
- Serve the hutspot family style on a large platter, slice the beef and serve with the gravy. 'Eetsmakelijk' and enjoy your home made Dutch Hutspot.

ne morning a husband returns after several hours of fishing and decides to take a nap. Although not familiar with the lake, the wife decides to take the boat out. She motors out a short distance, anchors, and reads her book. Along comes a water policeman in his boat. He pulls up alongside the woman and says, "Good morning, Ma'am. What are you doing?" "Reading a book," she replies, (thinking, isn't that obvious?) "You're in a restricted fishing area," he informs her. "I'm sorry, officer, but I'm not fishing. I'm only reading." "Yes, but you have all the equipment on board. For all I know you could start fishing at any moment. I'll have to take you in and arrest you." the woman slightly annoyed over the policeman's statement answered; "If you do that, I'll have to charge you with sexual assault," "But I haven't even touched you," says the policeman. "That's true, but you have all the equipment. For all I know you could start at any moment." "Have a nice day ma'am," and left. MORAL: Never argue with a woman who reads. It's likely she can also think.

After the funeral service when the mourners were leaving, the funeral director came up to the very elderly widow to hand her some memento. The funeral director mentioned that 98 years of living was something to be very proud of and wished the widow all the best for the future: The widow commented: "My husband was two years older than me."....."So you're 96," answered the funeral director. She responded: "Hardly worth going home, isn't it!"

A reporter was interviewing a 104 year old woman: "And what do you think is the best thing about being 104 years old?" she simply replied: "No peer pressure."

A nice, calm and respectable lady went into the pharmacy, walked right up to the pharmacist, looked straight into his eyes, and said, "I would like to buy some cyanide." The pharmacist asked, "Why in the world do you need cyanide?" The lady replied, "I need it to poison my husband." The pharmacist's eyes got big and he exclaimed, "Lord have mercy! I can't give you cyanide to kill your husband! That's against the law! I'll lose my license! They'll throw both of us in jail! All kinds of bad things will happen. Absolutely not! You CANNOT have any cyanide!" The lady reached into her purse and pulled out a picture of her husband in bed with the pharmacist's wife. The pharmacist looked at the picture and replied, "Well now, that's different. You didn't tell me you had a prescription."

George and Edith had been high school sweethearts 50 years ago, but had gone their separate ways after graduation. Then, two years ago, their paths crossed again, and they began seeing each other regularly. With age 75 just around the corner, they decided life was too short, and they might as well spend the rest of their lives together. Excited about their decision to marry, they went for a stroll to discuss the wedding, and found themselves in front of a Chemist shop. George said, "Let's go in. I have an idea." Addressing the man behind the counter, George asked, "Are you the owner?"

The pharmacist answered, "Yes sir, I am. How can I help you?" George: "Do you sell heart medications?" Pharmacist: "Of course." George: "How about support stockings?" Pharmacist: "Definitely." George: "What about medications for rheumatism, osteoporosis and arthritis?"

Pharmacist: "Yell kinds." George: "How about waterproof furniture pads and Depends?"

Pharmacist: "Yes, sir." George: "How about waterproof furniture pads and Depends?"

Pharmacist: "Yes," George: "What about eye drops, sleeping tablets, constipation pills and Ex-Lax?" Pharmacist: "Absolutely." George: "You sell wheelchairs, walkers and canes?" Pharmacist: "Yes, indeed. But why all these questions?" George smiled, glanced shyly at Edith and replied, "We've decided to get married and we're considering you for our bridal registry."

We are truly blessed in many way's

I've never made a fortune, and it's probably too late now.

But I don't worry about that much, I'm happy anyhow

And as I go along life's way, I'm reaping better than I sowed.

I'm drinking from my saucer, 'cause my cup has overflowed.'

Haven't got a lot of riches, and sometimes the going's tough
But I've got loving people all around me, and that makes me rich enough.
I thank God for his blessings, and the mercies He's bestowed.
I'm drinking from my saucer, 'Cause my cup has overflowed.'

I remember times when things went wrong, my faith wore somewhat thin. But all at once the dark clouds broke, and the sun peeped through again.

And may I never be too busy, to help others bear their loads.

Then I'll keep drinking from my saucer, 'cause my cup has overflowed.'

When I think of how many people in this world are worse off than I, I realise how blessed we really are.

Be kind, for everyone you meet is fighting its own battles.

Hi Joop, Received today the new "Concordia News"! As always a very good read! I enjoyed on page 5, the updated version of Nursery Rhymes! All Political correct! Also the story on page 22, the delay of liberating the western part, brought back some bad memories! I can recall vividly the bombers flying over so low, you could see the crew waving! During the last few month of the War, we really suffered! I also wanted to let you know, that I will not be there on Saturday the 20th May. I will be going with my son to Europe, where I will have the opportunity to say my farewell to family and friends for the last time! I am sure it will be a fun filled day in the Cardiff RSL! Until the next time. Regards; Joop van Leeuwarden.

Dag Joop, Echt genoten van de Concordia nieuwsbrief van mei-juni. Moet altijd veel lachen om de geweldige grappen waarmee je altijd op de proppen komt. Zoals vele anderen, vonden wij de show van Maart ook GEWELDIG, maar ze zijn immers altijd geweldig en altijd weer iets om naar uit te kijken. Zoveel leuker en gezelliger dan een doorsnee Australische show. Persoonlijk vind ik de mei show vaak het mooist en ontroerends, met de herdenking van de Nederlandse zaken zoals Koningsdag, Bevrijdingsdag en dan het mooie Wilhelmus.....zo ontroerend en heimweeachtig he. Dus zet a.u.b. 2 namen op de lijst voor de next functie, see you soon, with love.

Annie en Keiran Stephenson, Central Coast.
