PUBLIC SERVICE EXAMINATION, No. 67.

TO ENABLE TELEGRAPHISTS AND CLERICAL ASSISTANTS TO QUALIFY FOR ADVANCEMENT BEYOND £120 PER ANNUM.

IT is hereby notified that, for the purpose of determining whether their telegraphic efficiency is such as to warrant promotion beyond the Fourth Subdivision of the Fifth Class in the Clerical Division, an examination of officers who are classified as Telegraphists or Clerical Assistants, and whose salary does not exceed £120 per annum, will be held on Saturday, the 8th June, 1907; provided, however, that Clerical Assistants may be exempted from examination on satisfying the Commissioner that telegraphic skill is not requisite in the performance of their duties.

Candidates will be tested in Sending and Receiving, for not more than 10 minutes each way, at the rate of 25 words a minute (5 letters to count as one word), special attention being given, in Sending, to the firmness, regularity, proper formation and spacing of signals, as well as immunity from "breaks"; and, in Receiving, to accuracy and neatness of transcription and legible penmanship.

Applications to be examined will be received at this office up to the 4th May; but where it is impracticable for the applications of officers stationed in remote parts to reach Melbourne by the date specified, a telegraphic intimation should be sent, so that the candidates' names may be recorded, pending the receipt of their formal applications.

Applications must be in the candidates' own handwriting, on foolscap, and contain the following particulars, no printed forms being supplied. They should be sent direct, and not through the Department.

The Secretary,
The Commonwealth Public Service Commissioner,
Melbourne.

I hereby give notice of intention to present myself at Examination No. 67 for Telegraphists and Clerical Assistants to be held on 8th June, 1907.

Where Clerical Assistants desire exemption from examination, two applications must be forwarded, as under:—

- (a) A notice of intention to be examined, in the specified form, and indorsed "Exemption applied for," must be sent direct to this office.
- (b) A claim for exemption, addressed to the Commissioner, and setting out in detail particulars of the duties performed, must be delivered to the candidate's superior officer, who shall thereupon forward the same (accompanied with a report as to the accuracy or otherwise of the statements contained in such claim, and any other remarks he considers necessary) to the Chief Officer for transmission by him to the Commissioner, after indorsing thereon any observations he may think necessary in support or otherwise of the claim for exemption.

Candidates stationed at Metropolitan and suburban offices will be examined at the Chief Telegraph Office, while those located at country centres will be tested on the line from the Head Office. Where a candidate shall have been removed to another office between the date of sending in his application and the day fixed for the examination, immediate notification thereof must be sent to this office so that arrangements may be made for his examination.

Copies of examination papers for the year 1906 may be obtained from the Government Printer, Melbourne, for 1s. (by post, 1s. 1d.).
