

Summary CV
Everdine ten Brummelaar – Loos

Born: 1/6/1926, Bondowoso, Neth. East Indies. Nationality: Dutch Repatriate to The Netherlands 1947
Arrived in Australia 1956

Married: 1952, Theo ten Brummelaar. Four children.

Nationality: Australian since February 1962

Schooling: Primary school and a year Highschool in Neth.East Indies 1932-1942
Overbruggings HBS (B) Den Haag 1947 (Bridging High School to accommodate pupils who had been in the Japanese Camps)
Kweekschool (Akte a-j) Den Haag 1948, (Teachers College, primary school teacher)
Kandidaats (Pol.& Soc. Science) Gemeentelijke Universiteit, A'dam 1952 (City University Amsterdam)
BA (Psychology) Macquarie University, 1981

Work experience:

Sjouwploeg (Heavy work team), Japanese Concentration Camp, Sumatra.1942-1945
Apprentice journalist in Medan 1945,
Clerk Consulate General Netherlands, Singapore 1952-1955,
Primary school librarian 1965-1968 In Penshurst and Engadine, NSW
Primary school teacher 1968-1986, in Engadine and Randwick, NSW
Journalist/Broadcaster SBS Radio, 'Dutch Programme' 1978-1991 Contributing more than 1500 "babbels"
Columnist 'Dutch Weekly' 1991-2004
Columnist 'Dutch Courier' 2006.

Author of several booklets:

'From Clogs to Thongs' DAC 1994
'The other Dutch' DAC 1995
'Klets Kruiden' DAC 1996
'You Can't Eat Grass' 1996
'Tulips under the Gum Tree' DAC 1998